2. PUBLICATIONS

When reproductions (documents, photographs, etc., in black and white or colour) from the holdings of the Austrian State Archives are used for publication in books and e-books, illustrated books, exhibition catalogues, films, newspapers, periodicals, on the World Wide Web, or in other new media, a complete source citation must be provided for each reproduction used. In addition, a complimentary copy of the publication or other appropriate proof of use, in a format corresponding to the respective medium, must be submitted to the following address: Austrian State Archives/ÖADS, Nottendorfer Gasse 2, 1030 Vienna, Austria, or sent by email to osta@osta.gv.at. The use of reproductions is permitted under the terms of the CC BY-ND licence. The use of reproductions for purposes that are defamatory, discriminatory (e.g. on the grounds of race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation), libellous, degrading or dehumanising, pornographic, or otherwise unlawful is expressly prohibited.

3. EXHIBITIONS

3.1 Stationary exhibitions

Use of originals
A loan agreement must always be concluded with the State Archives for the loan of originals for exhibition purposes. The costs incurred (object framing, courier accompaniment, security recording, insurance, etc.) will only be calculated precisely upon conclusion of the loan agreement. The processing costs include administration, documentation, security images and restoration.
